

Wealth Management- An Interactive Session with Mr. Vivek Shah

Mr Vivek Shah, Business partner, Angel Broking, visited IMT Nagpur this Sunday morning. Full of energy and enthusiasm, he motivated our student managers and filled their weekend with absolute power, energy and immense knowledge.

Delivering a very interactive session, Mr. Shah took off the session by engaging student managers with their ideas of becoming rich and then explained the concept of the Cash flow quadrant. He also explained about recession proof investments and passive income and enlightened the student managers with a few golden tips of investment.

He explained, how students pursuing a PGDM from an esteemed institute like IMT Nagpur constitutes the top 1% of India's population and reminded us of the extreme potential we had in us. He also explained how Finance and Marketing walks in the parallel planes in any business and how one can become a master of his own destiny by following some simple steps.

IMT Nagpur is grateful to have had such a dynamic personality from industry to interact with its student managers, and thank him for taking out his valuable time and enlightening our student managers. Also we thank CIC chairperson Dr. Senthil Kumar for giving such amazing industrial exposure to the student mangers.

